An extract from The Archbishop's letter to priests this week:

Expressions of interest are invited for the positions of Parish Priest of Goodna Parish Priest of Stanley River, Administrator of Herston / Ashgrove / Newmarket, Administrator of Bardon / Red Hill / Rosalie. Expressions of interest should be lodged at this office, in writing, by 5.00pm on Friday, 15th October 2004. While the positions are advertised as Parish Priest and Administrator, applicants must realize that other possibilities may eventuate by necessity, including a possible new form of pastoring these communities, such as a Pastoral Director with a Priest in Residence.

Parishioner's comment: 'Serious Drought.'

THE CENTRE FOR MULTICULTURAL PASTORAL CARE has recently had Fr. Maurizio Pettena join them. Father Maurizio is a Scalabrinian priest who has been appointed Coordinator of Cross Cultural Formation, an important ministry that is particularly relevant in today's culturally and linguistically Australian Church and wider society. It is envisaged that Father Maurizio will work across Brisbane Archdiocese and the wider community as well as extending this work to respond to State and National needs in this area.
